

GET ENERGIZED ABOUT THE FUTURE

Electric technology isn't just for cars and data centers, you know. We're charging into 2024 with two big announcements about powerful health tech.

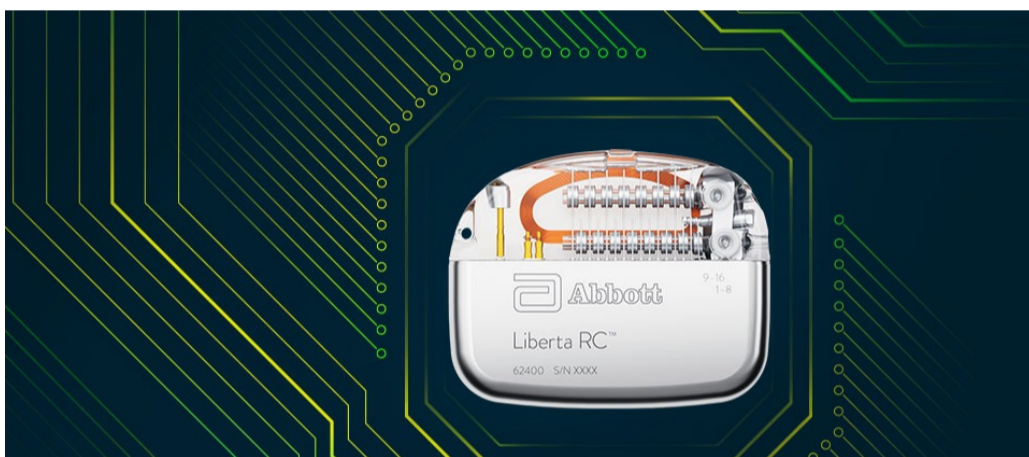

Start here with news about our Volt Pulsed-Field Ablation (PFA) System for people with abnormal heartbeats. Then scroll down and check out the newly FDA-approved Liberta RC DBS system for those with movement disorders.

Just like you, we're kicking the year off with a surge of positive energy.

A BIT ABOUT ABBOTT 1905-NOW

We look back at a disaster and forward to a triumph, linked by the dangers of "faulty wiring." This 1905 electrical fire devastated our home, but we built back bigger and better with an improved production facility, new lab and power plant. Fast-forward almost 120 years and we are building smaller and better to address faulty wiring in the heart.

THE above cut shows our fire in progress as taken by the photographer of the local paper, whose enterprise put its man on the ground with the first rank of the fire department. It was one of the fiercest fires ever seen in this part of the city, the entire structure, four stories high, with floor space of over 50,000 square feet, going down, a total loss, in but little over one hour. Cause of fire supposed to be a fault in electric wiring.
